All the world's a stage...

Our Senior Year . . . only a scene in the Play of Life . . . But, what a year it was! A year of firsts and lasts . . . our first year to enjoy the fine new library and cafeteria, the first senior class to enjoy the newly decorated halls and classrooms . . . our privilege to enter assemblies last . . . our last Homecoming, our turn to be feted by the Juniors at Junior-Senior . . . our classmates starring for the last time in athletics and dramatics . . . a time of living and working . . . the "always-on-the-job" SANDSPUR staff . . . the deserving superlatives . . . those who strove diligently to give us a yearbook, the reigning King and Queen at Homecoming, and the Student Council members to whom we look for guidance.

A mixture of cut-ups, serious students, happy "hes and shes," likeable and easygoing classmates . . . This was our Senior Class . . . Each an individual, but each playing a role in the last scene at Hamlet High School.

The underclassmen, teachers, and parents . . . They, too, played a vital role . . .

All this and much more will never be forgotten. For what we have found at Hamlet High can never be taken from us!

Richmond County's
Two Class AA
Teams Remain Undefeated

The two Class AA teams in Richmond County — the Hamlet Red Rams and Rockingham Rockets — remain undefeated after hectic games over the past weekend.

COACH CASKEY of Hamlet—who did such an amazing job his first year in the "Big Leagues"—received the title of "Coach of the Year."

Caskey has learned lots—and, he should produce even better teams in the future, was the general consensus.

GEORGE WOOTEN, as he has been all season long, was the big spark in the Hamlet offense and defense Friday night.

Calling plays with the finesse of a pro, Wooten threw a pass to Buck Hodges to account for the only touchdown in the first half. The Rams were back on their own 26-yard line when Wooten heaved the pass to fleet-footed Hodges who caught it on the 50-yard line and high-tailed it for pay dirt.

This play, which brought the Hamlet fans to their feet cheerfully followed a play in which Ray [unclear] pooted 59 yards for what [unclear] to be a Hamlet touchdown. However, the TD was nullified when a penalty was called on the Rams.

The Massey Hill team caught fire in the second quarter and seemed to march at will through the Ram defenses.

Just before the half ended, they started a drive which went to the Hamlet 2-yard line. With the ball in scoring position — and fourth down and 2 yards to go before reaching touchdown territory—the time ran out before the Massey Hill team could get a play off. This was a big break for the Rams, for it appeared certain that MH would have scored if they had been able to get another play off from scrimmage.

THE RED RAMS played much better football in the second half of the contest.

The Hamlet forward wall—led by ends Tommy Smart and Bo Davis—was outstanding on defense, particularly in the second half.

Tackles Kenny Quick and Larry Nowell, guards Anderson Jacobs and Lee Suggs and center Dab Craddock (who played his first game of the season because of an injury received the first week of practices) received the praises of their coaches for outstanding defensive playing.

At the start of the fourth quarter, the Rams took possession of the ball on the Massey Hill 40-yard line and started a drive down the field. Wooten plunged over from the one-yard line to give the Hamlet team their second touchdown.

Later in the fourth quarter, with the Massey Hill team getting very tired, the Rams scored again when Wooten threw a pass to end Tommy Smart. This play was good for 30 yards.

The Hamlet Red Rams — with a big assist from Lady Luck — rolled to a 20-0 tory over Massey Hill night. The victor third in a row Caskey's pern — suffered his ankle the da was unable to play, t Massey Hill team put up a sti defense and the game was much, much closer than the score indicates.

Edge, according to most sports writers who had seen the Massey Hill team in action this season, amounted to about 60% of the team's strength. His absence from the lineup was a jolt to the MH players.

Approximately 300 Hamlet fans made the trip to Fayetteville for the game. The Hamlet band put on a halftime show and received
